

'15 Farewell Symposium

On June 18, 2015 a farewell symposium was held for 12 graduating JDS fellows at International Conference Room, Kiyoshi Togasaki Memorial Dialogue House in ICU. We were glad to have First Secretary of Embassy of the Lao PDR in Japan and guests from Japan International Cooperation Center for this symposium. The JDS fellows gave a presentation on their research in the field of Public Policy and Social Research and also Education with their plan outlining how they can contribute to development in their home country after going back. JDS Committee member faculties, their advisors and also other Graduate Students listened to their presentation and had a lively exchange of views about their thesis topics.

JDS fellows expressed their deepest gratitude to the all concerned that have supported this program. ICU faculties and kohai fellows congratulated the graduates and offered encouragement for their future career.
